

Reflections is the longest-running LHPC Adult Christian Education class and it takes place in-person and in hybrid format at 10:00am. This class is designed around reading and discussing books of the Bible or other books with a spiritual perspective. The class chooses our subject and we encourage open and vigorous discussion where everyone's perspective is valued. On September 15th Reflections began reading the Book of Hebrews. Some scholars believe that Hebrews was written for Jewish Christians who lived in Jerusalem but its essential purpose was to exhort Christians to persevere in the face of persecution. At that time, certain believers were considering turning back to Judaism and to the Jewish system of law to escape being persecuted for believing Jesus to be the Messiah. The theme of the epistle is the teaching of the person of Jesus Christ and his role as mediator between God and humanity.

In the past this class has read books like Genesis, Exodus, Matthew, Mark, John, Luke, ACTS, Romans, Revelations but also many religious books written by well-known authors like David Jeremiah, Max Lucado, Robert Morris, CS Lewis, Tim Keller and John Burk among others.

If you haven't attended one of Lake Highland's Christian Education classes, we encourage you to visit our Reflections class on a regular or irregular basis in person or over Zoom. Everyone's viewpoints are welcome and respected. We build fellowship and expand our knowledge of Jesus. You may participate actively or just listen.
